

UNIVERSITY OF NEW SOUTH WALES
INSTITUTE OF LANGUAGES
INTERMEDIATE CERTIFICATE

PORTUGUESE

JENNI PAYNE is able to handle all routine formal and informal demands fluently and accurately and is able to deal with unexpected and less routine situations effectively. Is always easily understood by a native speaker and is able to communicate effectively with a native speaker of the same socio-cultural group. Has a high standard of fluency, accuracy and range in the language both written and spoken.

PASS: Is able to perform all the above adequately although may exhibit non-native characteristics, but these do not interfere with performance.

CREDIT: Is extremely competent in all the above and can respond appropriately even in unfamiliar situations. Is always understood by a native speaker. Has a rich flexible source of vocabulary and structures at most levels.

DISTINCTION: Proficiency equivalent to that of a native speaker of the same socio-cultural group.

Has complete fluency, accuracy and range in the language, such that speech on all levels is full accepted by native speakers in all its features. Minor non-native characteristics which may be present will not interfere with communication or understanding.

.....
Head of Department

2/1/91
.....
Dated

This transcript is accompanied by an official certificate.